

PathMakers Mentoring Program

WHO ARE PATHMAKERS?

- Women desiring and motivated to make positive changes in their lives with the guidance of an individual Mentoring Partner and the support of a group of like-minded women
- Women who are ready to make a commitment to themselves, their Mentoring Partner and to the PathMaker Program to embark on a journey of self-growth and renewal and to engage fully in the process
- Women in an array of transitions from career and educational exploration to recent widow-hood or divorce to a desire to move forward in new and different ways

WHO ARE MENTORING PARTNERS?

- Women who are at a place in their lives where they have a desire to walk with another woman on her journey of self-discovery and personal growth
- Women who believe that regardless of privilege or need, all women are “each other” with much to give and receive from one another

The PathMakers Program is a eight-month mentoring program starting in the fall and providing mutual learning and growth that has the potential to be life-altering .

It’s an opportunity for women to create a life vision and move toward making this vision a reality with the support of an individual Mentoring Partner and a group of like-minded women.

Come join a group of women of all ages, each on her own personal journey, enriching one another as we meet for monthly workshops and 1:1 sessions
